

- 1. Choose a famous American to learn about.
- Read a book or two about this person. This reading can count towards your daily 20-minute reading.
- Complete the "Who's Who" page. Use your best writing and correct punctuation.
- 4. Using the white timeline paper provided by your teacher, make a timeline with 5 important dates in your famous American's life. Below each picture square on the timeline include the important date and a detailed explanation of what event occurred on that date.
  - * Include a colorful illustration for each event.
- 5. You should make your timelines neat, detailed, and colorful. It is a good idea to go over your writing in black marker to help it stand out on the page.
- 6. Remember to write the famous American's name at the top of the timeline where is says "Story Title". As always, do your very best work! ©
- 7. An oral presentation on your famous American will be given in class.
